

MARKET REPORT – WEEK 42

BASED ON SALES AND PURCHASES OF VESSELS WEEK ENDED FRIDAY 18TH OCTOBER 2024.

Having killed the Hamas leader Sinwar in Gaza last week Israel can claim to have made significant progress there albeit still without rescuing over 100 remaining hostages. Meanwhile the world still waits to see if Israel will retaliate against Iran in some new and ingenious way and / or what sector(s) of Iran's infrastructure will be hit.

The BDI did not have a very good past week with all dry indexes losing ground except for the smallest handy types. The BCI lost -19.7%, the BPI -10.45%, the BSI -1.5%, while the BHSI managed a +1.25% gain. Overall the BDI closed down on Friday by -12.9% w-o-w.

Reported S+P activity last week remained low for tankers in which sector there remains plenty of second hand vessels available for sale, while on the Bulker side sales are becoming a little more difficult to conclude due to buyers, reflecting the recent declining dry freight trends, are mostly now only willing to deal at price levels below last done for any size units except maybe for Capes whose values appear to be holding at this time.

The subcontinent recycling markets remain uninspiring with prices on offer for ships fluctuating a little over recent weeks but the reality of there being so few vessels offered means very few deals getting done and the 3 sales reported to that area last week all went to India. In the same period 4 vessels were reported sold to Turkey last week too.
